

Via Lana Sloutsky, Curator of Collections & Exhibitions

Curatorial Internship

Position Title: Curatorial Intern

Reports To: Curator

Internship Offered: Spring 2021

Summary

Under the supervision of the Curator of Collections and Exhibits, the curatorial intern will help reorganize and expand the Center for Icon Studies (<https://www.museumofrussianicons.org/center-icon-studies/>), a collaborative virtual space for professionals, students, and members of the public who are interested in any aspect of Orthodox icon studies.

Internship Description

The intern will be involved in all aspects of the project, including the following:

- Researching, compiling lists of and contacting potential funders and collaborators.
- Researching and gathering relevant electronic resources, such as academic titles, news articles, websites, videos and syllabi.
- Creatively contributing to the development and publicization of the CIS.

This will be a virtual with a weekly Zoom meeting with the Curator. A final report and PowerPoint presentation will be due at the end of the semester.

Requirements

In addition to our standard internship requirements, the successful candidate should:

- Have outstanding organizational and online research skills.
- Have strong knowledge of MS Word, Excel and PowerPoint.
- Have excellent oral and written communication skills.
- Demonstrate flexibility, attention to detail, dedication, creativity, independence, the ability to follow instructions, and strong interest in the subject matter.
- Have access to electronic library resources, including JSTOR.
- Be majoring in Slavic Studies, Museum Studies, Art History, or History.

For questions regarding the internship, please contact Lana Sloutsky, Curator of Collections & Exhibitions at лана@museumofrussianicons.org. The deadline for this internship application is January 8, 2021.